

Section 1 RESOURCE GUIDE OVERVIEW

New Challenges. New Solutions.

The National Center for Victims of Crime and the Office for Victims of Crime (OVC), Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice, are proud to present the 2013 National Crime Victims' Rights Week Resource Guide.

Since 1981, National Crime Victims' Rights Week (NCVRW) has challenged the nation to confront and remove barriers to full justice for victims of crime. Each year, communities across the country revisit the history of the victims' rights movement and recommit themselves to advancing the progress already achieved. The 2013 NCVRW Resource Guide includes a wide array of user-friendly outreach tools, current statistics on victimization, information on the history of victims' rights in the United States, and concrete, practical ideas on how your community can help meet new challenges and find new solutions on the road ahead. You can explore and adapt these resources as you plan your public awareness campaign for National Crime Victims' Rights Week, April 21 – 27, 2013.

2013 NCVRW Theme and Theme Colors

The 2013 NCVRW theme—New Challenges. New Solutions.—reflects the spirit that launched the victims' rights movement, inspired its progress, and renews our field's power to meet new challenges. The colors chosen to symbolize the 2013 theme—midnight blue and orange—are used throughout the 2013 NCVRW Resource Guide. (See "Match the Colors!" box for more details.)

NCVRW Kick-off Event

The U.S. Department of Justice will begin National Crime Victims' Rights Week with the Attorney General's National Crime Victims' Service Awards Ceremony in April 2013. The ceremony, held annually in Washington, DC, honors individuals and programs for innovations and outstanding achievements. For more information about this event, including the time and location, please visit <http://ovc.ncjrs.gov/ncvrw/events.html>.

NCVRW Planning Tips

The following tips will help you enhance your 2013 NCVRW planning and maximize the impact of your efforts:

- Review each section of the Resource Guide before making any plans. Once you have established your outreach goals, you can choose the materials that would be most helpful to achieve them.
- Set up an NCVRW planning committee to set goals and priorities, brainstorm activities, and share the workload. Your committee might include crime victims, survivors, victim service providers, or health professionals; leaders of civic organizations, universities, parent-teacher associations, or student organizations; or members of criminal and juvenile justice agencies, faith communities, local businesses, the service industry, or the news media. Encourage diversity and collaboration with underserved populations.
- Exchange contact information, including e-mail addresses, to encourage ongoing communication among committee members.
- Create or update mailing lists for event invitations and other materials.
- Draft a timetable that includes committee meetings, tasks, deadlines, and areas of responsibility.
- Develop a contact sheet of local media outlets to notify when you schedule special events.
- Coordinate planning for 2013 National Crime Victims' Rights Week with other awareness and prevention campaigns held during April, including National Child Abuse Prevention Month, National Sexual Assault Awareness Month, National Volunteer Week, and National Youth Service Day.

Resource Guide CD-ROM

In addition to the entire collection of 2013 NCVRW Resource Guide artwork, the 2013 NCVRW CD-ROM (enclosed in the hard-copy version of the Resource Guide) also features PDFs of all Resource Guide contents. You can access the entire guide electronically by inserting the CD-ROM into any equipped computer.

The CD includes NCVRW-related artwork, public awareness posters, and PDFs with fillable form fields. Anyone with a computer and a free copy of Adobe Reader (downloadable at www.adobe.com) may add local contact information to many of the art files. The PDFs (as well as JPEG images) are available in both black and white and color. (See Section 3, "Resource Guide Artwork," for more information about this feature.)

The artwork is provided in three formats:

- Adobe InDesign layout pages, including the Illustrator images required to correctly open and print the artwork. To view these files, users must have Adobe InDesign CS5.5 or higher.
- JPEG files available in both black and white and color. These individual images may be placed in graphics programs, in various word processing programs, and on websites.
- PDF files in black and white and color that can be opened with Adobe Reader, available for free download at www.adobe.com.

These three formats can help simplify replication of Resource Guide materials and make it easier to incorporate this year's artwork into any digital or hard-copy piece, including event fliers, slideshow presentations, television broadcasts, public service announcements, and print advertisements. (For more information on the artwork in this year's Resource Guide, please refer to Section 3, "Resource Guide Artwork," on the CD-ROM.)

The entire contents of the 2013 NCVRW Resource Guide can be also accessed electronically at www.ovc.gov/ncvrw2013.
